John Bjorkman....Expert in charge of the ration book of sports.

Tom Kenney.....Authority on activities—in charge of ration book no. 3.

Corinne Kloska....Chief advisor of faculty for ration book no. 1.

The Rationing Stamps

SCHOOL

Rationing has made quite a few things scarce around L. T. H. S. this year. Our faculty fearing too much rationing might warp our healthy minds decided to help us by making sure there was no lack of assignments. Even studious and energetic Ray Sullivan seems overburdened by it all.

CLASSES

The ordinary things of school life like algebra, history, and English haven't felt the effect of rationing too much. The other ordinary things like a boy meeting a girl at her locker between classes are becoming more extraordinary — not enough boys. Not enough food in the kettle doesn't seem to bother these girls. They still think that some things are more important than eating.

Were Well Used

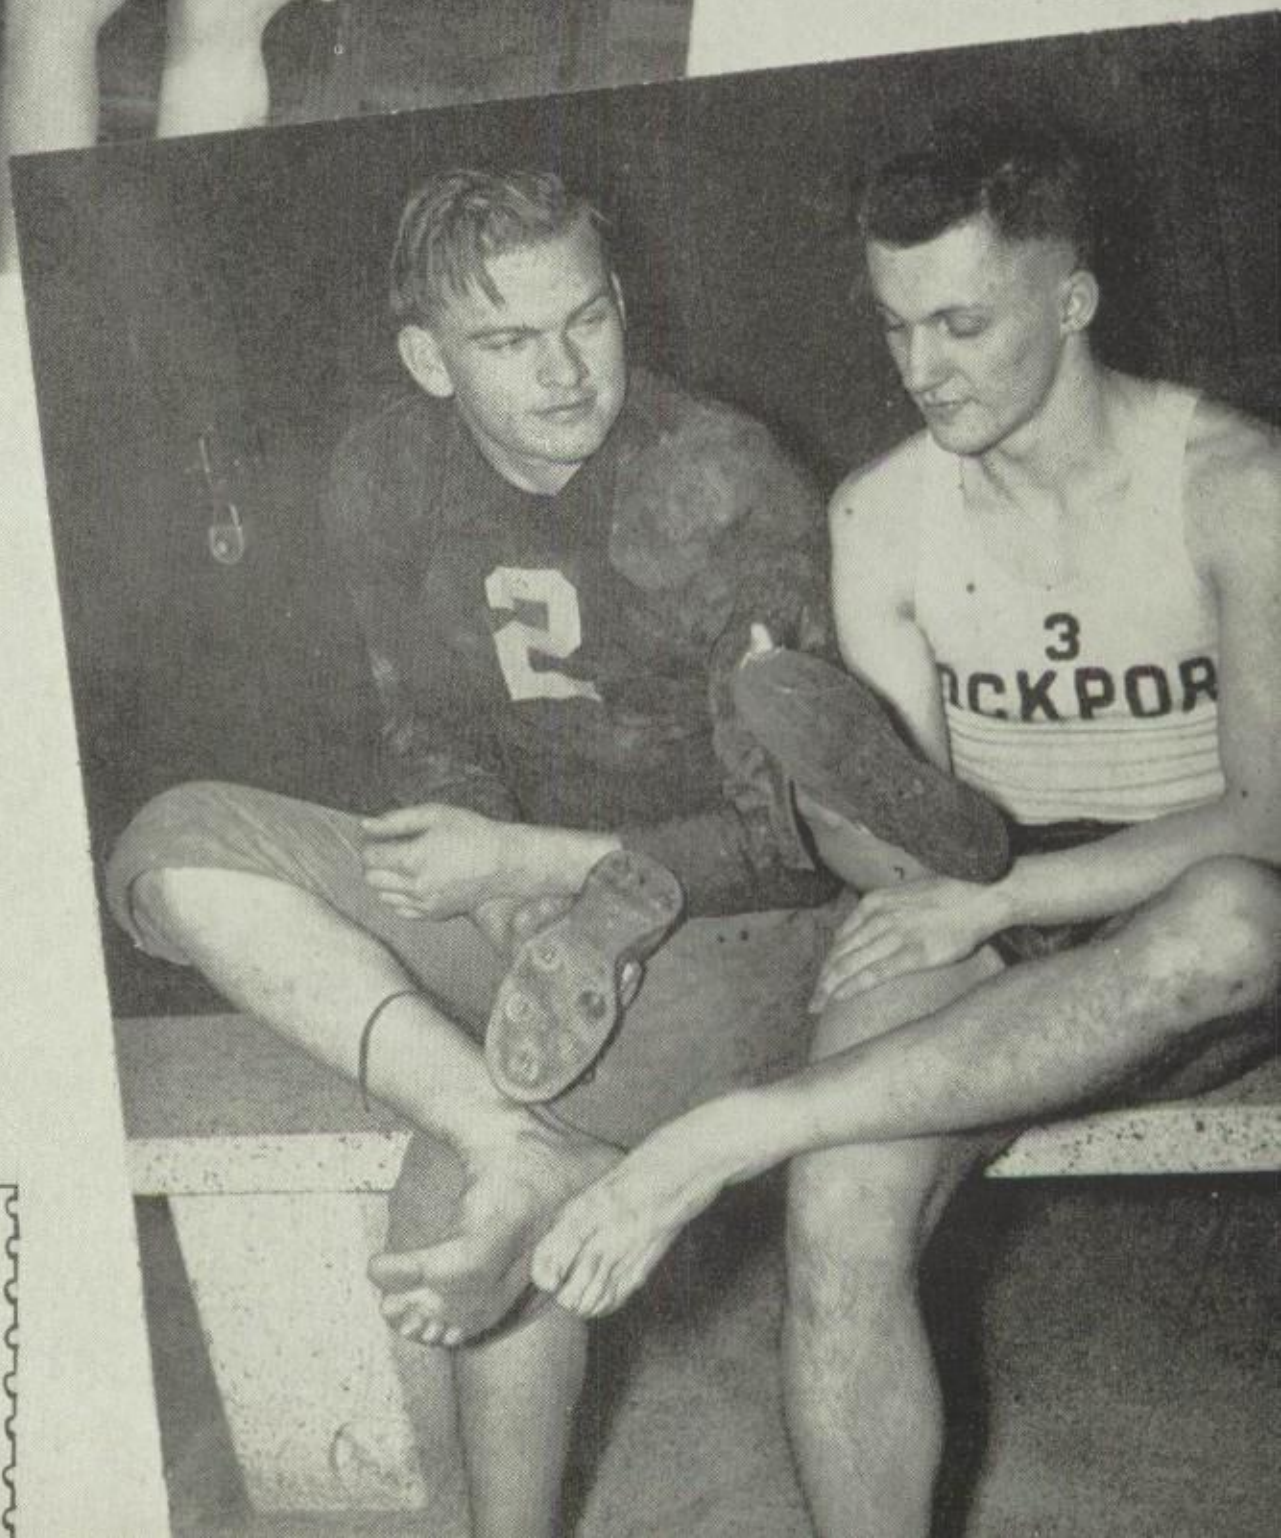

ACTIVITIES

These three people serve as an apology for the "Lock" staff. Their work was greatly handicapped this year because of rationing and priorities. The scarcity of ideas is plainly evident in this picture.

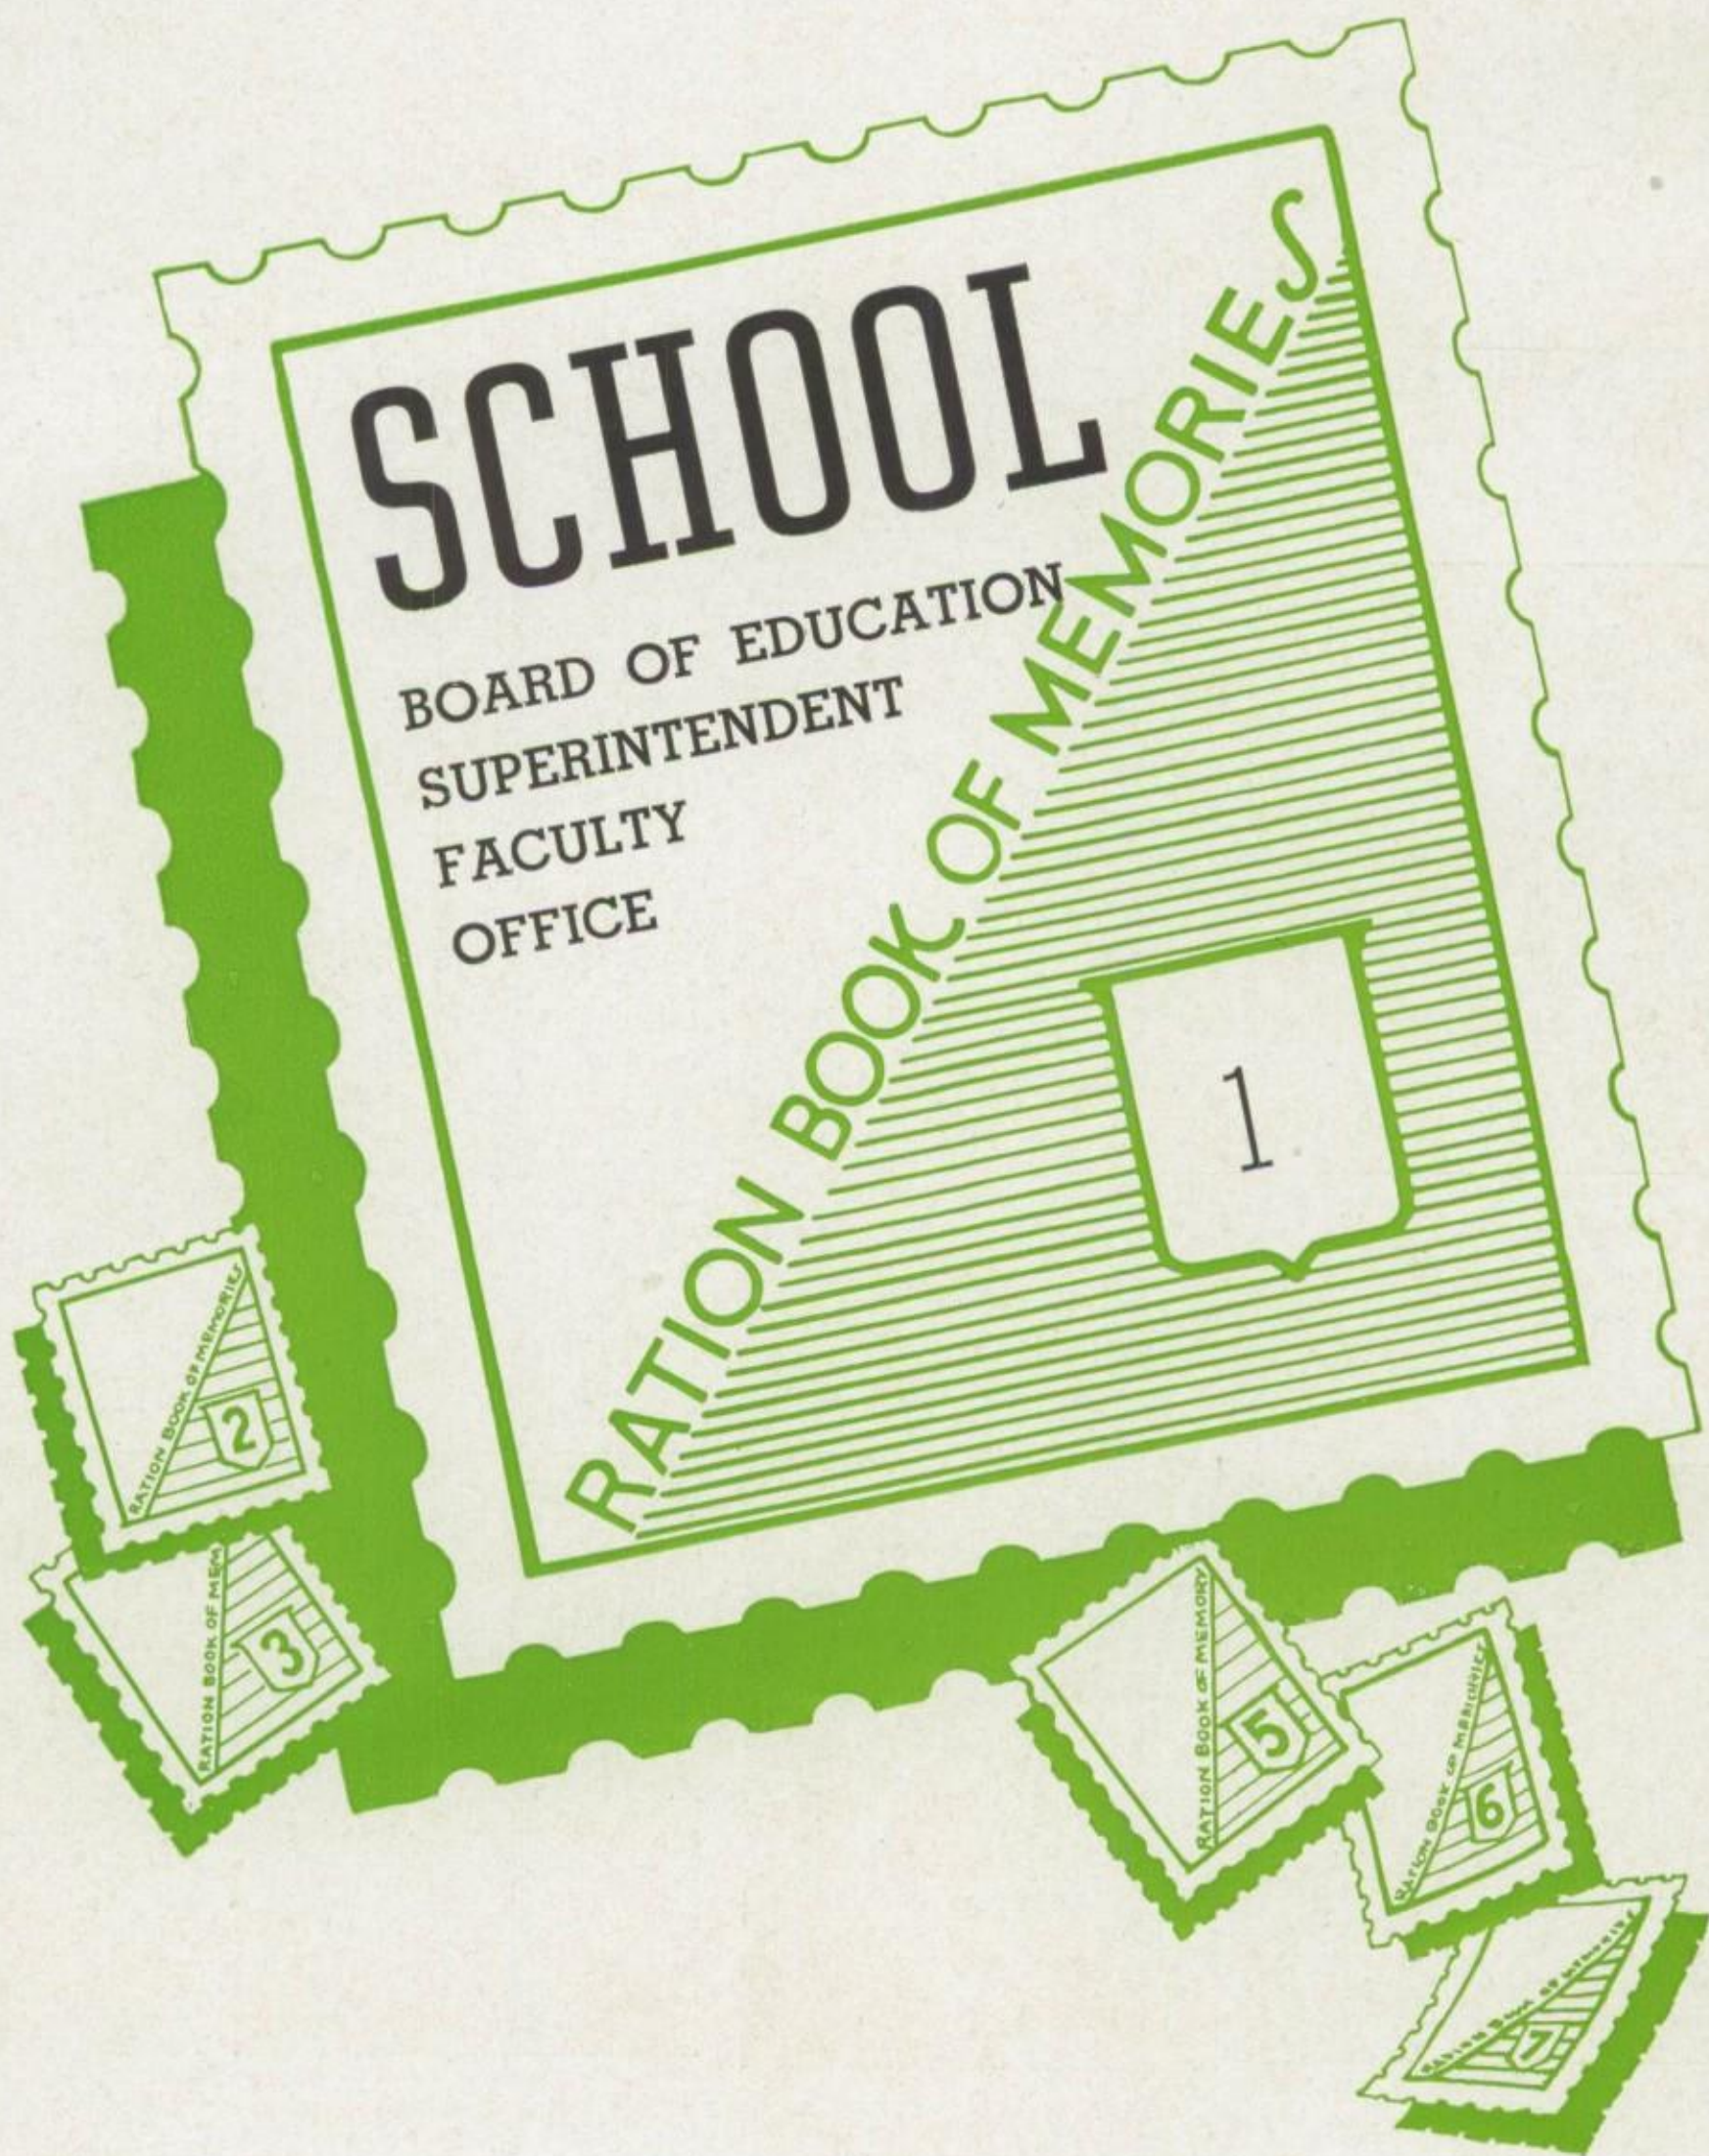

ATHLETICS

Even our athletic department was bothered with rationing problems. These two athletes are looking over the situation to see if their shoes will stand another game. If conditions grow any worse, next year's teams may have to go barefooted. Who knows?

Top Row:

Mr. Bartelme, a newcomer this year, teaches first year shorthand, world history, and algebra.

Mr. Pence, junior and senior English instructor, is also the faculty sponsor for the "Times."

Mr. Caneva is kept busy directing chorus, band, and orchestra. Everyone looks forward to their programs.

Middle Row:

Mr. Johnsonius presents the talent of juniors and seniors in two plays yearly. He also has classes in history and Latin.

Miss White, who replaced Mr. Stephenson in the history department, teaches juniors how the ancients used to get in and out of battles and also helps us remember our dates.

Mr. Smith, our superintendent, is the guiding influence of our entire school. It is to his credit that we have one of the finest high schools in the state.

Mr. P. White teaches a business course, and he also aids us in understanding the democratic way of living.

Mr. Flink helps keep the school spirit alive in L. T. H. S. He has a class in civics and is also a physical education instructor.

Front Row:

Miss Johnson, another new teacher this year, is in charge of the home economics department. She also has a class in first aid.

Miss Olson helps to keep the girls' waists and hips in good proportion. She also conducts English classes.

Miss Barrick gives us a better understanding of the why's and if's of mathematics.

Miss Schumann takes that scared feeling out of us when our presence is requested at the office.

Miss Matlack is one of our new teachers. She is faculty sponsor of the Junior Red Cross and has charge of the art classes.

Miss Emmons (not in picture) assisted many of us, not only in English, but with French and Spanish as well.

Mr. Bismarck is the one responsible for all the delightful odors emanating from the chemistry room. He also has classes in biology and general science. Even after school his room is bustling with the activity of those who have received detention.

Mr. Stephenson is in our physical education department this year. He is the faculty sponsor for the "Lock" and has endured all the headaches involved in making this book.

Mr. Sterling, manual training instructor, helps the boys provide their homes with cigarette stands, tables, and knickknacks.

Mr. Weston teaches his boys how to keep out of shocking situations.

Mrs. White, typing and stenography instructor, makes a dream picture of secretarial work for a graduate's future.

Mr. H. White makes good mechanics out of quite a few boys, and also helps the war effort by teaching a class in pre-flight aviation.

Mr. Cherry has a class in civics and is the instructor in charge of the metal shop.

Miss McDonald is our new office girl this year. She reentered L. T. H. S. last fall when Miss Meader left.

Miss Goerz keeps our heads whirling with theorems, equations and laws of the scientists. Her subjects include geometry, algebra, general science and physics.

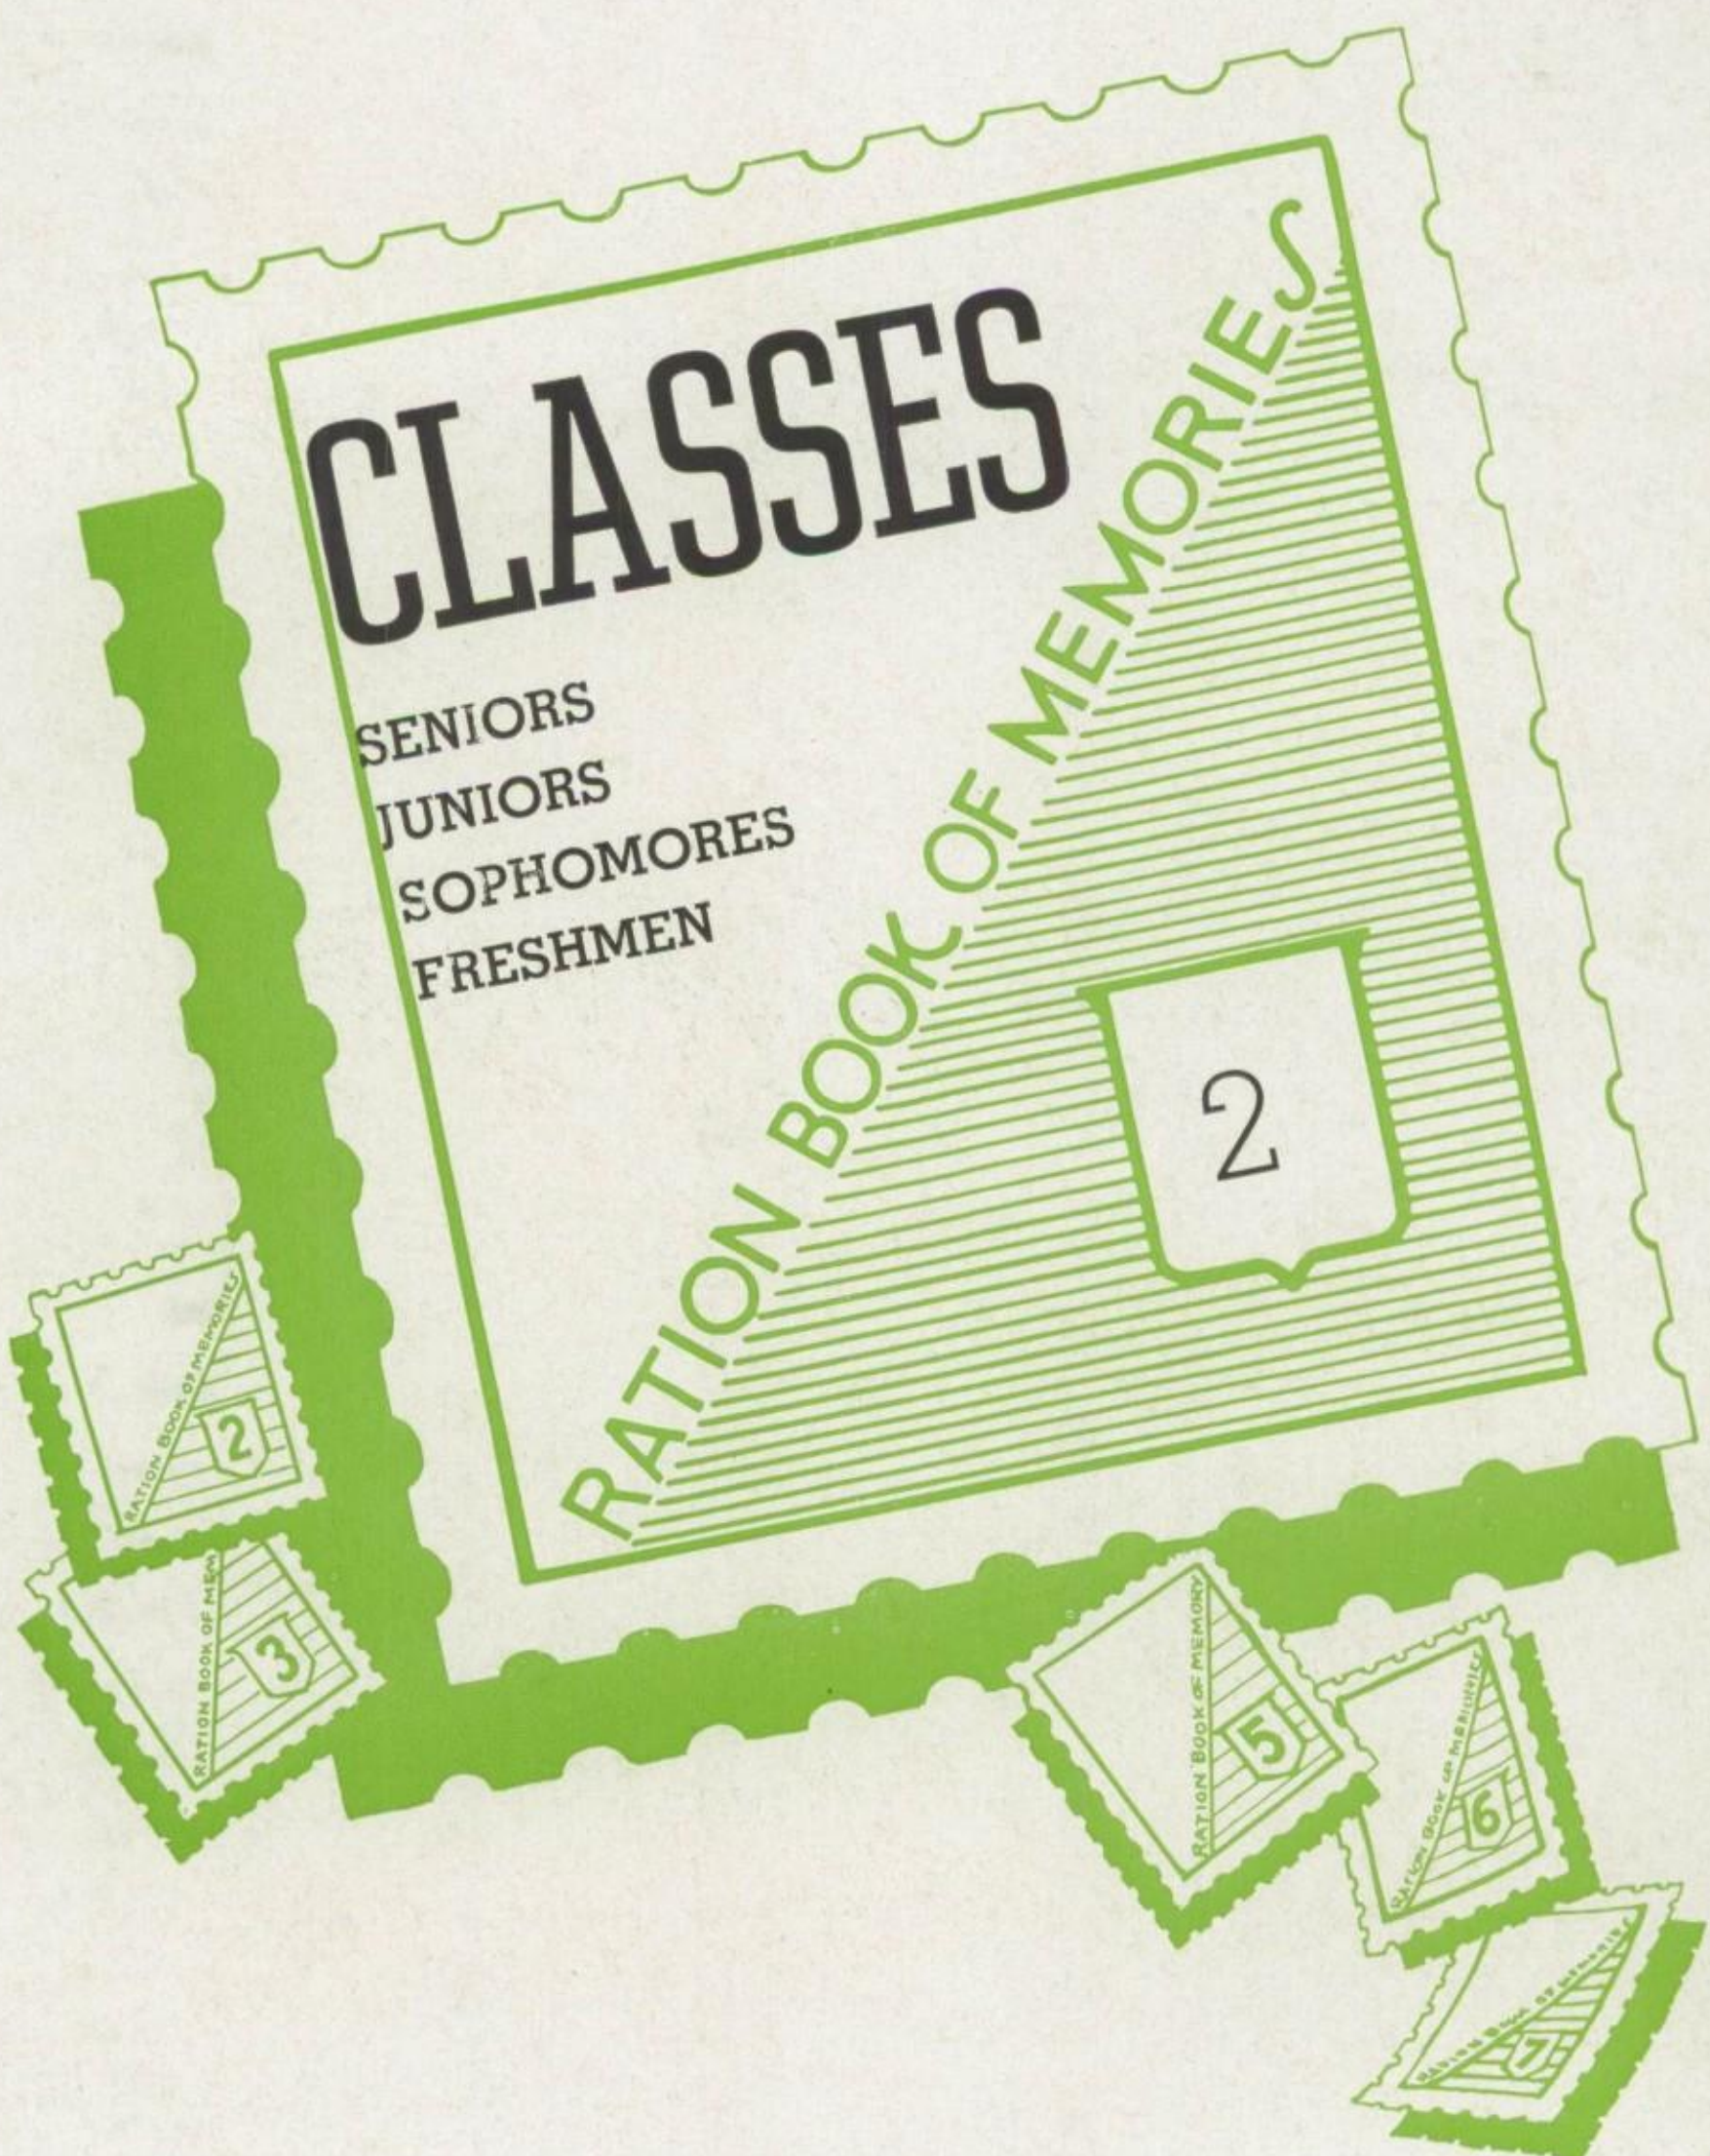

Miss Shepherd, our librarian, is very helpful when we can't find just what we want in the library.

Mrs. Lynch gave many of us the fundamentals of English in our freshman year, and helped us to appreciate the classics of literature.

Senior Class History

On September 3, 1940, 126 nervous freshmen entered L.T.H.S. for the first day of their high school careers.

The class officers for the four years have been: presidents, Joseph McGuire, Wendell Sineni, Robert Dasenbrock, and Frank Miller; vice-presidents, Doris Johnson, Jean Kennedy, Robert Wagner, and Carl Boe; secretaries, Dorothy Johnson, Le Roy Traylor, Carl Boe, and Betty Jo Murphy; treasurers, Le Roy Traylor, Joseph McGuire, Raymond Timm, and Lois Briick.

Before many weeks had elapsed we had entered into the activities of school. The boys went out for sports, and the girls joined the G.A.A.

When September '41 rolled around, we returned to the "institution of learning" less timid than the previous year, and much wiser for the year's experiences.

Our junior year was filled with many activities. On November 27 and 28, the class presented "She's a Soldier's Sweetheart" to a large and appreciative audience. The all-important event of the year, the junior-senior prom, was held in May. We all worked hard in making it a successful evening—even though it did rain.

We returned again in 1943 dignified seniors, and found ourselves even busier than the year before—writing for the "Times" and "Lock," taking part in "Brother Goose," and being active in various organizations. Our class, during this last year, has decreased in size, since so many of our young men have enlisted in the armed forces.

Soon it will be final exams, class day, baccalaureate, and graduation, and then all will be treasured memories.

These boys left the class of 1943 to join the armed forces. After completing nine months of honorable service, they have been granted a semester's credit for graduation. This period ended too late to allow credit for graduation in 1943, but it gives these eight boys the necessary credits to graduate with the class of 1944.

Prophecy

Madam Shirley Zongie

A glimpse ten years into the future, as seen by Madam Zongie, brings forth these startling revelations:

The main stem of our town has changed greatly. We now see John Titre as sole owner of the Elite Shoe Repair Shoppe. Katherine Materna has just opened her new dress shop—La Katrina. Jack Foster and Harold Raue have taken over the management of the Beef and Brawn Meat Market. June Manning is the proprietor and chief soda-jerker of the Chocolate Drop Soda Shop. Ernie Bankroff and Casey Kucera are co-owners of the Short Circuit Electric Co., and Carl Boe is president of the Boe Tie Co. which he organized recently. Nadine Peterson is his private secretary.

Some other members of our class went to large cities and made good. Melvin Strong replaced Bob Hope in Hollywood and has just completed his book, "Corn by Strong," Vol. III. Norma Ott was promoted to lieutenant in the Waves and is working in the recruiting office in Chicago. Dr. John Hensley is pastor of a fashionable church in New York. Helen Imparl is a shorthand reporter for the Chicago Municipal Court where Bill Lawyer is the judge. Bob Dasenbrock, Leonard Pesavento, and Bob Wagner are now on Broadway starring in "The Burlesque Follies of 1954." Jane Kesner is doing a fine job of replacing Carmen Miranda on the screen. Clarence Close was elected president of Vassar College, and Hope Norton is the new Dean of Women. Herriott Bowers is the director of the "Cash and Marry" date bureau in Chicago, and Marge Fredrickson is his assistant.

Our old friend, Lt Hale Hoyt, who gave the Japs hail, is making the Army Air Corps his career. Dominic Savala thinks the Navy is tops and now has his commission as lieutenant.

I suppose you all know that Lillian Potochnic has taken Helena Rubenstein's place as a beauty expert with Lois Anderson acting as her chief assistant.

June Bertelsen and Marge Deckow are models for the Slick Chick Dress Company.

Of course you know that some of our seniors made good on the radio. Mary Nell Welsh is on the rye crisp hour with Lorraine Brandenburg and Pauline Stokes as her script writers. Leta Mae Simpson is tuba player and Marie Radakovich vocalist in Phil Spitball's Orchestra. Shirley Wyatt has taken over the "Irene Rich" radio program.

Mary Capitina has accepted a new position. She is bouncer at the Broadway skating rink where Dorothy Chismar has charge of figure skating.

Darlene Churnovich has taken over the job as bowling instructor at Rivals after Louise Kosicek resigned.

Larry Radich is section foreman for the E. J. & E. Railroad with Pete Wittenkeller under his authority.

Tom McCoy has been a retired farmer for the past five years.

Doris McCann and Lois Briick were recently hired as dancing teachers at the Hot Foot Dancing School.

Marge Balavender has been happily married for eight years.

Corinne Kloska is the head chemist at the Blow 'em High Chemical Co. in Moscow, Idaho where she has gained fame for her discovery of dry water.

Tom Kenney, warden at Stateville, received a patent on his Easy Open cell lock.

The Lock

The Lock Staff of '44 has been beset by many troubles in the preparation of this book. Priorities, scarcities, and the armed forces have all taken their toll. However, through the hard work of our sponsor, Mr. Stephenson, and the cooperation of the staff, all the tasks were successfully accomplished.

This year more than ever the staff has tried to provide recreation for L.T.H.S. students through a series of dances. Two of the most successful were the Sadie Hawkins and the Halloween hard times party.

We of the staff also had our share of fun as you can readily see by turning to page 53 of this book. There you'll get a glimpse of what went on at the "Lock" farewell party given for a couple of our boys who left for the army.

As you leaf through the pages of The Lock we sincerely hope you enjoy looking at it as much as we enjoyed preparing it.

The "Who's Who" and "What's What" of Lockport High was revealed on the first Tuesday of every month through the school newspaper—"The Times."

This monthly publication was edited by seniors under the capable direction of the faculty sponsor, Mr. J. L. Pence. During the year "The Times" became indispensable to L.T.H.S. for it brought to the students not only news, sports, editorials, and interesting articles, but also humor and the latest gossip—all for only a nickel.

The farewell party for Johnny and Smokey

Our genial host presents the gifts.
Can it be Frank Sinatra? No—it must be Dinah Shore.
Don't be afraid to take more, Smokey; it's all free.

You might know who would be at the head of the table.
It seems not only the boys are bashful, but one of our girls is too.
Tom "Garcon" Kenney. My, he looks natural in an apron.

Band

This year's band consists of 55 girls and 25 boys, making a total of 80 members.

Their activities have been limited this year due to the war, but they have taken part in many local programs. These include school assemblies, concerts, basketball and football games, parades, and public functions of all kinds. Several times the band has helped to promote the sale of stamps and bonds in the various war loan drives. They have aided in county and community drives, too.

The annual Christmas and spring concerts were given this year as usual. The band also played for baccalaureate and graduation.

Much credit should be given to their director, Mr. Ernest Caneva, for the fine work he has been doing with this group.

Chorus

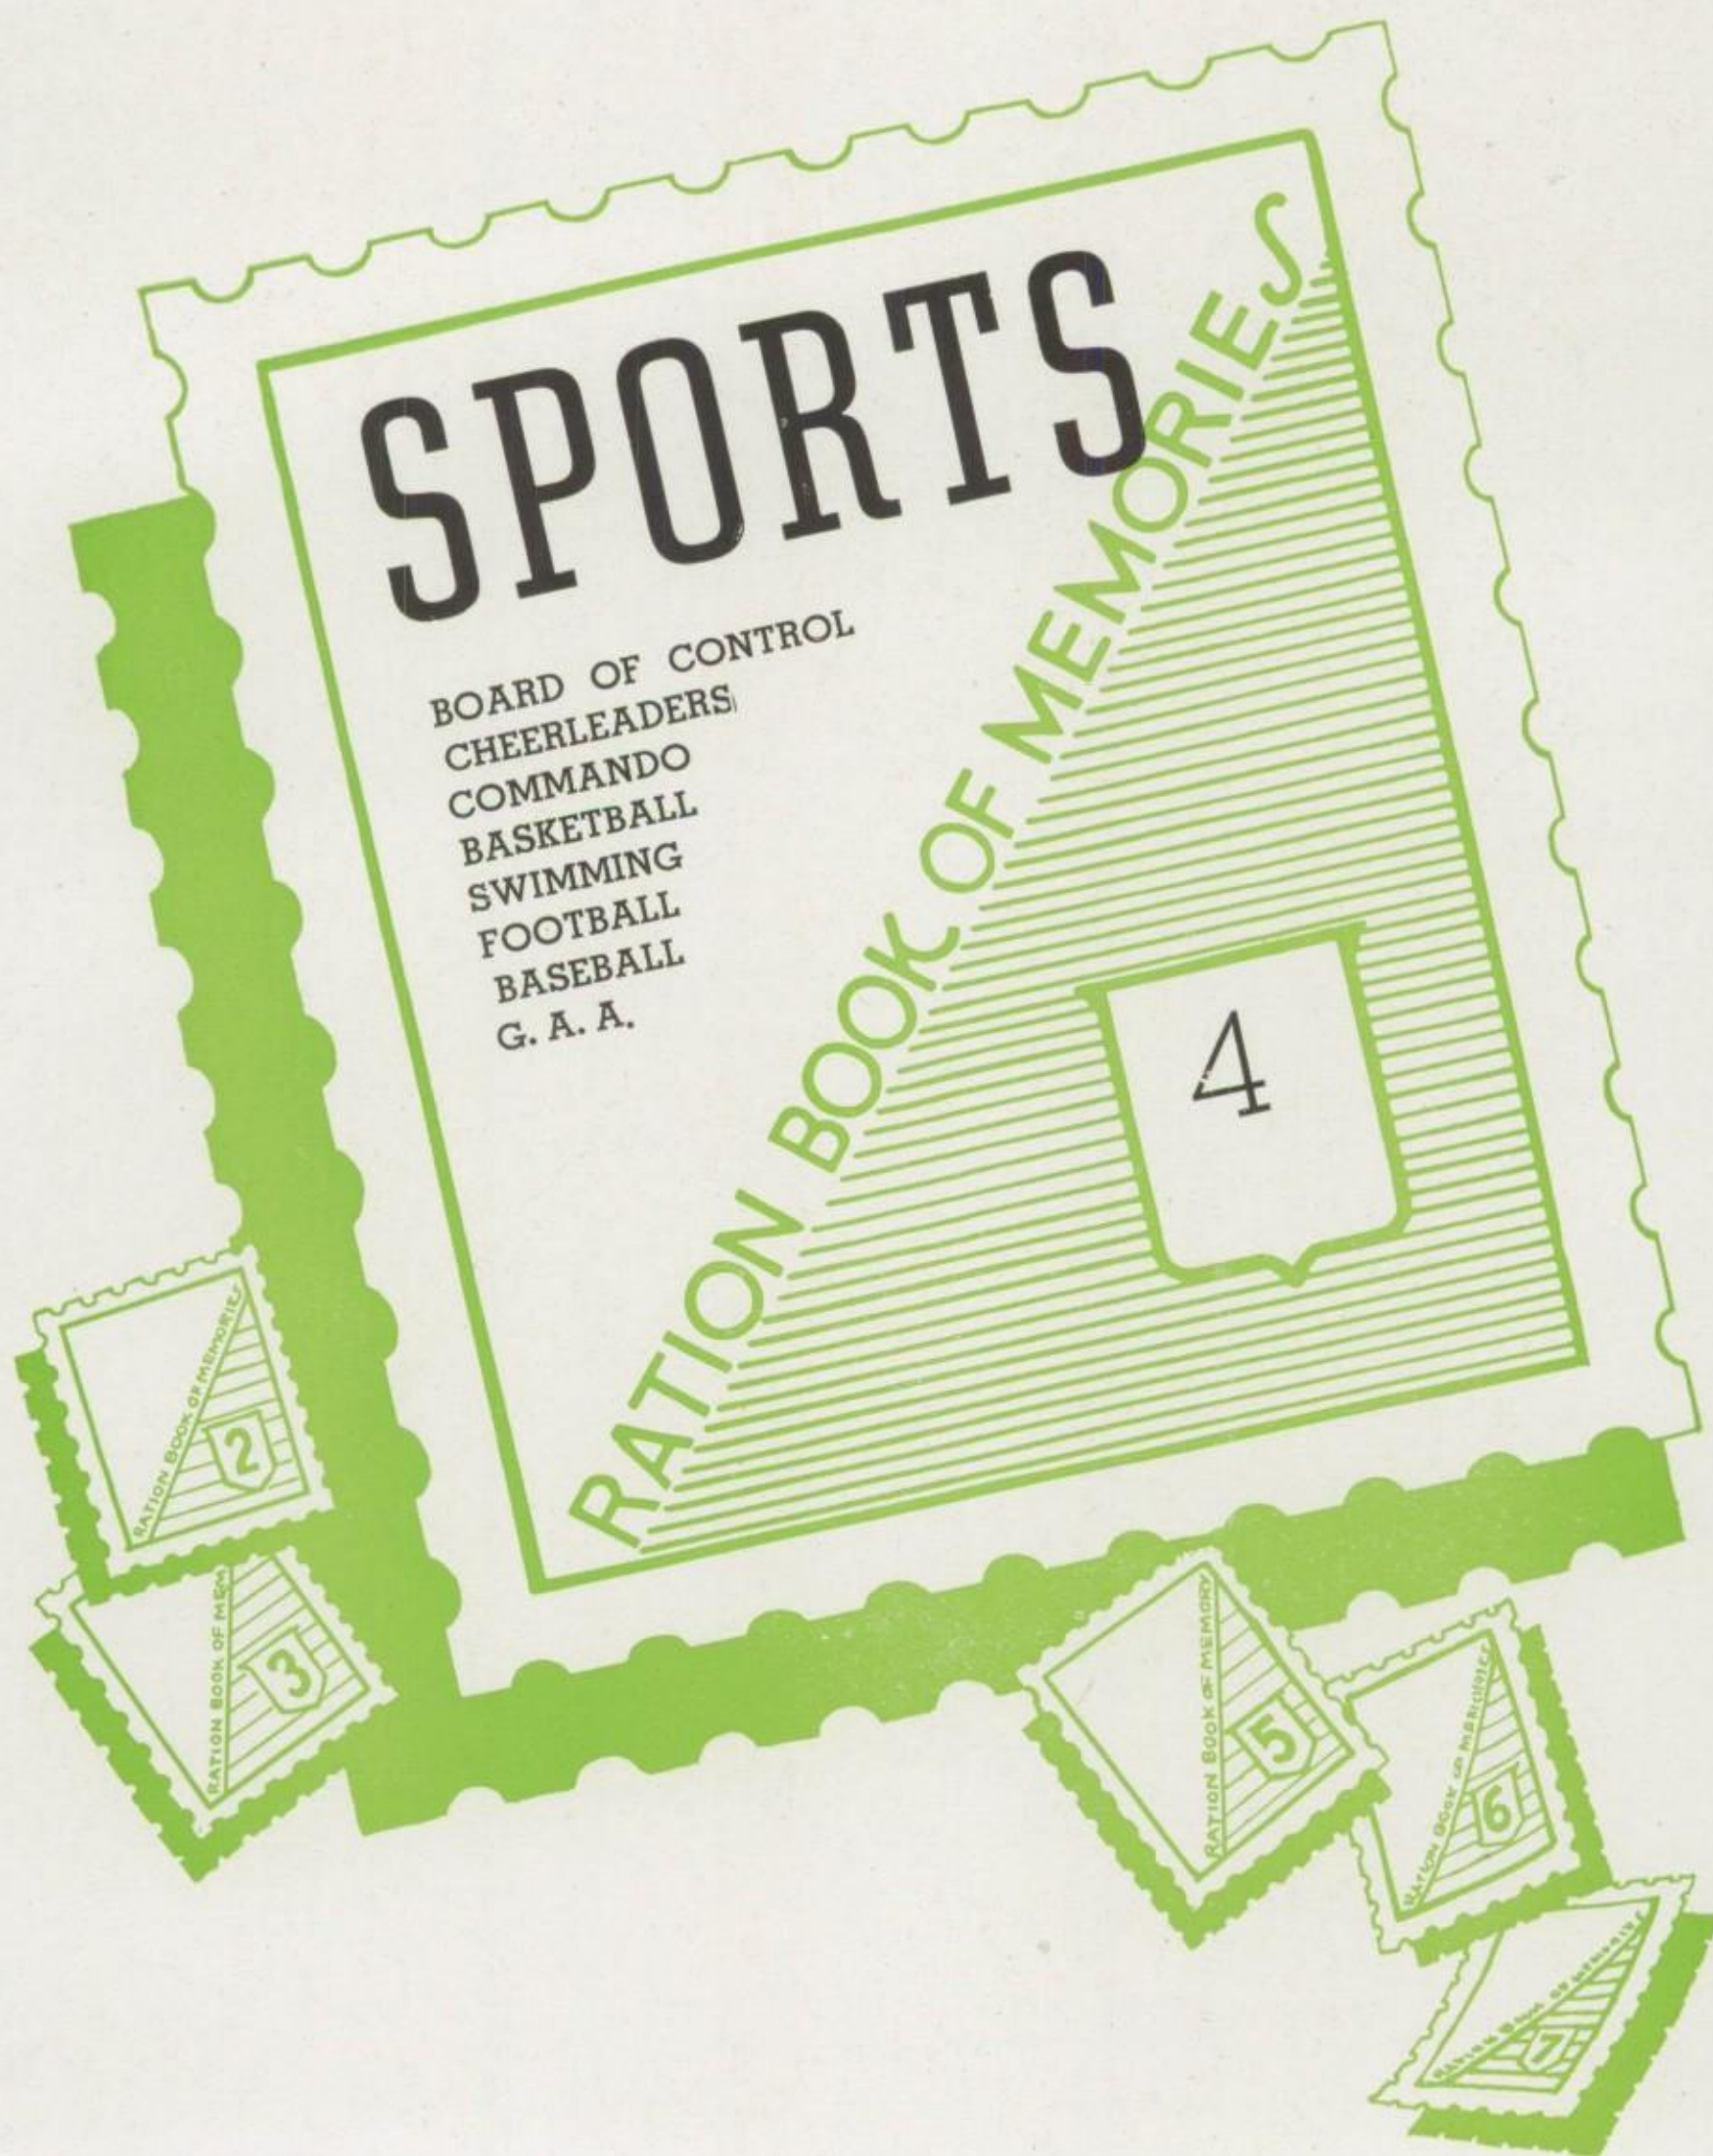

Another active part of the music department is the chorus. The officers are Eleanor Kopelman, president; Shirley Jungles, vice president; and Delores Drick, librarian.

The interest of the boys in this organization has become increasingly evident. About a dozen boys have taken part in rehearsals and performances with all indications pointing to an equalization of the bass voices with the sopranos in the near future. The new maroon robes, trimmed with white, have added much to the appearance of this group.

This organization entertained at school assemblies, concerts, and at various other programs.

Hats off to Mr. Caneva for the progress this group has shown during the past year.

Lockport—6

St. Charles—20

Although Lockport showed plenty of fight and scrap, they lost the opening game of the season to a heavier, more experienced St. Charles eleven. Bjorkman scored Lockport's only touchdown on a 20 yard pass from Miller.

Lockport—6

Pullman Tech—0

L.T.H.S. traveled to Pullman and came home with their first victory. Lockport muffed many scoring chances, but finally crossed the goal line in the last quarter. Bjorkman, who scored the touchdown, highlighted the game with his passing while Rich Lanphier stood out on defense.

Lockport—12

Bradley—0

In their first home appearance Lockport's eleven defeated a determined Bradley team. Frank Miller scored in the opening minutes of play on a 70 yard run around end. Lockport's second score came on a pass from Bjorkman to Dasenbrock. Lockport's line, led by Wagner and Sineni, time and again stopped Bradley from scoring.

Lockport—0

Blue Island—33

Lockport journeyed to Blue Island where they received a severe trouncing from the Islanders. Blue Island scored three times in the first quarter and took all the fight out of the Oilers.

Lockport—47

In our second home contest L.T.H.S. overwhelmed our traditional rival, Lemont. Lemont held the Porters to only 9 points in the first half, but the second half was a different story. Miller and Bjorkman each scored twice while Resis, Pesavento, and Cagwin scored one touchdown apiece.

Lemont—0

Lockport—33

Scoring in every quarter, Lockport defeated a much heavier Morgan Park crew on the Porter Field. The Lockport line, composed of Murphy, Wagner, Sineni, Krieger, Kenney, Lanphier, and Dasenbrock, stopped Morgan Park's running attack cold. Scoring honors went to Bjorkman, who made two touchdowns, while Dasenbrock, Pesavento, and Murphy made one each.

Morgan Park Military—0

As usual the girls have their mouths open. However, they were singing the "Loyalty."

Poor managers! Always left holding the bag.

A bevy of girls and Jimmie Ajamie
No wonder Ajamie is smiling, but why the girls?

Lockport—26

Argo—7

On a very muddy and sloppy day the Porters upset the powerful Argo eleven. Bjorkman's three touchdowns on runs of 70, 35, and 30 yards led the scoring while Miller's 35 yard run accounted for the other score. Miller and Bjorkman together with Resis and Rodeghero stood out on offense while Wagner and Lanphier played fine defensive ball.

Lockport—42

Morris—0

Lockport's very successful season was ended on Armistice Day when the Porters trampled over Morris. Morris held Lockport to 14 points in the first half but couldn't hold the Porters in the final half. Bjorkman, who made 3 touchdowns, and Miller, who scored 2, closed their high school careers in a blaze of glory. Resis scored the remaining tally.

The lightweights, under the direction of Coach Stephenson, came through in fine style this year, winning 3, losing 1, and tying 1, for an average of 750. During the 8 years of lightweight football at Lockport no team has finished with less than a .500 average and no team has lost to Joliet. This year's outfit was no exception. The squad was composed entirely of underclassmen, the majority of these being freshmen. About 12 freshmen showed up well and will provide very good material for both lightweight and heavyweight squads during the next three years.

Our basketball teams this year finished with approximately 500 percent against the South Suburban League and some of the toughest competition in this area. The boys were definitely in every game they played and were never outclassed.

Next year we will miss such boys as Bjorkman, Resis, Miller, Dasenbrock, Pesavento, Wagner, Radich, and Francis from the heavies; also Synwolt and Waechter from the lightweights. Returning heavyweights will be Murphy, Fracaro, Rodeghero, and Lambert. Several lightweights such as Bowlan, Fabek, Goodale, Murray and Broderick show a lot of possibilities and with the returning heavies should be a good nucleus for next year.

Physical

The black market in excuses was usually felt on Thursdays. This was generally the day for calisthenics, gym work, and a toughening program of some sort. This was also the day when the sick, lame, and halt would flex their muscles for one crucial effort, lay their excuses from "home" on the desk, and anxiously chorus, "We don't have to take gym today, do we?" After being reassured by the instructor that the situation was "just ducky," and being invited to take an easy chair to watch the other 10% work out, the class would proceed as pictured above.

Fitness

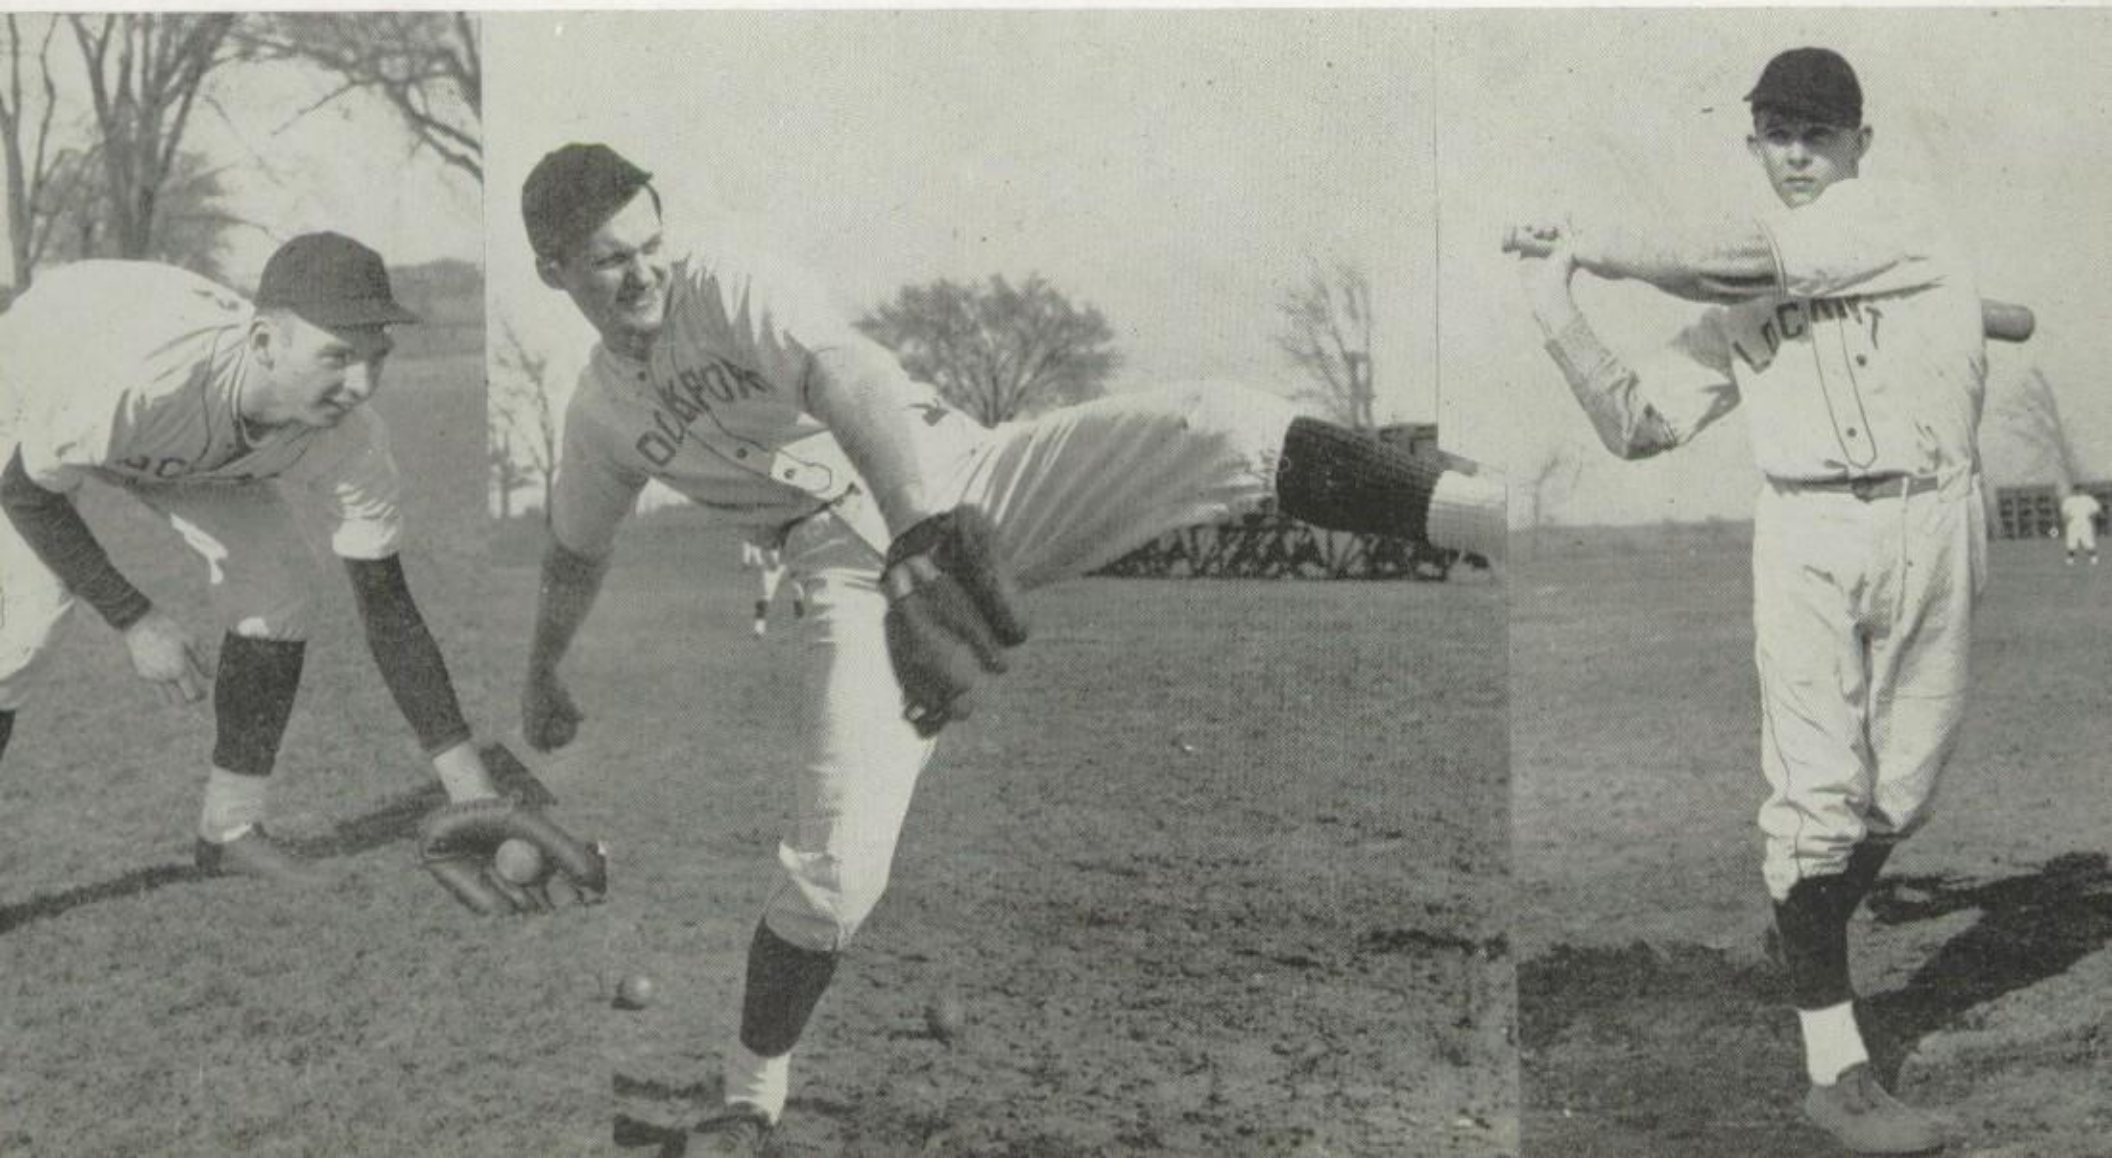

A few push-ups and pull-ups, a little tumbling, some boxing, work with the medicine ball, wrestling, and rope climbing are shown on these pages. We might mention some of the things that do not show, such as blisters, lumbago, fallen arches, and general physical fatigue. Anyhow, to a lot of us, it was fun, and it had its place in our curriculum.

Board of Control

Rubber shortages and gas rationing could not stop athletics at L.T.H.S. so it was up to the athletic board of control to settle all the unavoidable problems that do crop up.

At the meetings held during the year the members found it was their job to set the price of admission at our games, decide whether or not to continue the use of season tickets, and in other ways determine the athletic policy of our school. Mr. Flink served as chairman of the board, however all plans were referred to our superintendent Mr. Smith for final approval.

Standing: T. McCoy, R. Dassenbrock.
Seated: Mr. Stephenson, C. Kloska, Mr. Flink.

Cheerleaders

D. Anderson, D. Bokan, D. Johnson, J. Kennedy.

Rationing certainly never affected the yells of our cheerleaders. They seemed to possess an unlimited quantity of school spirit and energy. Their vim, vigor and vitality not only spurred the spectators on to bigger and louder yells, but also inspired in our team that will to win. This has been a most successful year, and we are sure all will agree that a great deal of credit is due to this vivacious foursome.
